ONE HIGH LINE

Where the High Line Meets the Hudson River

Developed by Witkoff & Access Industries, One High Line offers condominium residences set above New York's celebrated High Line in prime West Chelsea. With seemingly limitless lifestyle options at your doorstep, it is a destination unto itself.

A Beautifully Crafted Addition to New York's High Line

Designed by Bjarke Ingels Group, One High Line's sculpted travertine towers span an entire city block and boast condominium homes with unobstructed city and water views, each superbly executed with natural light bathing every corner.

“It becomes almost like a dance, or a mutual courtesy, between the two towers. Rather than ignore each other, they almost care for each other and enhance each other’s situations.”

– Bjarke Ingels

ABOUT BJARKE INGELS GROUP

BIG is a Copenhagen, New York, London, Barcelona and Shenzhen based group of architects, designers, urbanists, landscape professionals, interior and product designers, researchers and inventors. We believe that in order to deal with today’s challenges, architecture can profitably move into a field that has been largely unexplored. A pragmatic utopian architecture that steers clear of the petrifying pragmatism of boring boxes and the naïve utopian ideas of digital formalism.

Residents are welcomed home with a private porte-cochère entrance and lushly landscaped courtyard designed by Enzo Enea at the heart of the property.

West Tower

“For the West Tower lobby, we wanted to create an interior that really brings the outside in. There is a connection to outdoor air, light, and water. We emphasized natural materials to reflect that.”

– Gabellini Sheppard

West Tower Lobby

Kitchens are impeccably crafted with and outfitted with custom Bulthaup Grey Larch cabinetry, Honed White Princess Quartzite countertops, and sleek satin stainless-steel fittings.

The primary bath is rich in materiality, with quartzite flooring, walls, and bathtubs, satin stainless-steel fitting, and a eucalyptus vanity with polished White Lumix.

Spacious great rooms reflect the highest caliber of design, with eucalyptus wood entry doors and 7-inch-wide oak plank floors throughout, while floor-to-ceiling windows take in forever views of the city and Hudson River.

East Tower

“The East Tower interiors invite a sense of warmth, with elements inspired by the property’s natural surroundings. The lobby is richly appointed in earth tones. There’s a strong connection between humanity and nature.”

– Gilles & Boissier

East Tower Lobby

The kitchen's playful mix of matte and polished materiality invites a sensory experience, where appreciation for shape, texture, and organic forms touches us in ways that stir the soul.

Richly contrasting natural materials, including dark wood and marble, invite a sense of tranquility in the primary bath.

Gracious living spaces draw their inspiration from the openness of the surrounding area: views that stretch across the Hudson River, the airiness of the building's waterfront location, and the creative energy below.
